Gender-Based Violence (GBV) awareness program

The Internal Compliant Cell and Women Empowerment Cell organized an awareness program on “Gender-Based Violence” on 30.11.2024 in SVA Government College, Srikalahasti.

Objectives:

- To raise awareness about gender-based violence and its impact on individuals and society.
- To encourage open discussions on issues related to GBV and create a supportive environment for sharing experiences and perspectives.

The program was inaugurated by Principal Dr. K. Narasimha Varma, who emphasized the importance of gender equality in academic institutions. The chief guest, Advocate Smt. V.K.M. Pragnasree, delivered an insightful speech on the legal aspects of gender-based violence, explaining the laws that protect women and the support systems available to them. WEC Convener Dr. M. Thulasi, Dr. Satya Narayana Reddy Physical Director and Dr. Nagaiah Lecturer in Political Science, highlighted the role of educational institutions in combating GBV and fostering a safe environment for women. WEC members, teachers, and students joined the event. They took part in discussions and shared their ideas on how to stop gender-based violence. The program helped everyone understand how serious the issue is. It also made them feel more responsible for building a safe and equal society. Nearly 60 members were participated in this program. The program was successfully completed
