Dr. M.Pankaja, Lecturer in English invited the guests and seminar started with prayer by Dr.P.Maheswari, Lecturer in Statistics.

The inaugural ceremony of the seminar started with a Ganapathi sloka and Lingastakam prayer by Dr.P.Maheswari, Lecturer in Statistics.

Dr.Y.Nagaraja Naidu, President of the inaugural session presided over the function and welcomed all the delegates, Principals of other degree colleges, Library Professionals, Faculty members, research scholars and students to the seminar. He mentioned that the topic is relevant to the current situation and broad. He said that we are in the digital age and there is a gap between ancient libraries and modern libraries and this gap need to be filled. He felt that the students are not spending enough time for reading and we must accept it and need to change this trend. In his presidential address, he is mentioned that the new generation users are expecting the library services with in a short time and required the information access online. He is opined that most of the college libraries are in terrific condition. The libraries should provide best services to get good results and should guide the students in many aspects. He also revealed that this seminar will fulfil the needs of users and further it is useful to librarians, teachers and students. He said that the teacher and student relationship and bond is vert important for achieving academic excellence. He concluded with his best wishes to all the delegates' and for fruitful deliberations.

Dr. Nayakanti Maddaiah mentioned that the students are not turning up to the libraries regularly and not using library books, which is a big challenge. Dr. Maddaiah thanked the management for their support and expressed his gratitude to the Principal and other faculty members of the college. He opined that organising this seminar may provide a solution on how to attract more students to the libraries and access the information resources in innovative way. He opined that the government college libraries are buying text books only at present, hence reaching out the students is not an easy. He also felt that the lack of infrastructure is another challenge for the government colleges. The same will be discussed in this seminar.

Dr. M.R. Murali Prasad said that the students must consult the librarian for available resources in the library and to use the same for their education and research purpose. User perceptions and expectations are different and librarian must understand. He explained that the meeting students with librarian for their career growth and competitive exams are necessary. He is mentioned that the librarian is a resource person and may guide the students in their career planning and helps in preparing competitive exams.

Dr. C. Mallikarjuna expressed his gratitude for sharing the dais first time with his research guide. He suggested all the students that they need to focus on fundamentals of science on the occasion of national science day. He stated that the libraries are shifting from print to digital media, which need more attention both by users and librarians. He suggested the library professionals to focus on the updated content and strengthen the libraries with quality collection.

Release of Seminar Volume with ISBN: Prof. K. Padmini, Principal SV College of Arts, SV University, Tirupati released the seminar proceedings volume edited along with Dr. Y. Nagaraja Naidu, Principal, SVA College (M), Sri Kalahasti, Dr. O. Sivasankar Prasad, Dy. Librarian, UoH and other editors Dr. Nayakanti Maddaiah, Dr.M.R. Murali Prasad and Dr. C. Mallikarjuna. The seminar volume is distributed to all the dignitaries on the dais.

Dr.T.Ramachandra Reddy revealed that the libraries are like temples. He also felt that principal, teaching staff, librarian, and director of physical education are the four pillars of any academic institution without them an achieving excellence is not possible. He said that this kind of organising seminar is rare. He complemented Prof. K. Padmini for her contribution in the LIS field and quoted that she works for the students without any personal interest. He also appreciated the organising secretary for organising this kind of seminar third in the same college. He also reminded the quote of Kandukuri Veeresalingam panthulu saying that chirigina chookka naina thodukko... oka manchi pustam konukko. He also stated that the gaining knowledge is important than obtaining marks in the exams.

Dr. C.S. Sukumar Reddy informed that the parents play a vital role in children career. He said that the academic libraries are prominent and support the curriculum and research of an organisation. He envisioned the type of libraries such as academic, public and special libraries and their impact on different users. He said that he is fond of reading telugu novels and at times read the same book again and again because of his interest in that particular book and which gives lot of satisfaction.

Dr. M. Bhaskar Reddy complemented the organizers. He enlightened the role and importance of library in NAAC and academic grades / rankings. He reminded the quote of Dr.

APJ Abdul Kalam One Best Book is equal to Hundred Good Friends, One Good Friend is equal to a Library. He reiterated the various services and products of INFLIBNET to the students, research scholars and faculty and their use and impact. He explained about e-consortia, e-shodhganga, e-shodh sindu, e-shodh gangotri, NLIST, SOUL, anti-plagiarism softwares.

Dr. C. Sreeremulu said that the libraries need to do SWOT analysis and threats are big challenge for libraries. Cost benefit analysis is necessary for availing more grants from the authorities. He said that the library is a motivation and inspiration for many. Role of libraries in NAAC and RUSA is very important. He said that the government is developing many platforms for creating MOOCs, SWAYAM, NPTEL, EPG Pathasala and so on.

Prof. K. Padmini, Chief Guest of the Inaugural Session shared her experiences as a principal and recalled her mother and how she was when working as a Principal, she said that her spending of three decades in university is unforgettable. She said that she is blissful in sharing the days her own research students who are working good positions. On this occasion she appreciated the efforts of her students. She reminded her journey with the research scholars and their style of working. She motivated the young students with inspiring situations happened in her life. Also she expressed the main challenge of the day faced by many libraries is optimum utilization of the resources by the users. When most of the information is available through smart phones, users do not have much interest to visit libraries. It is the duty of the librarians to attract the users to the library with its ambiance, facilities, sources, services, and treatment. Some of the negative perceptions of the users must be cleared and expectations of the users must be taken care of. Hence, library must provide quality service in order to retain and increase its importance for its users and succeed in enhancing the role of the library in teaching, learning and research

The inaugural session was concluded with the Vote of thanks by Dr. M. Ananda Rao, Professor of Zoology, S.V.A. Government College (M), Srikalahasti.

Rapporteur General	:	Dr. O. Sivasankar Prasad, Deputy Librarian, IGM Library, University of Hyderabad.
Co-Rapporteur General	:	Hemanth Kumar, Librarian, Bharatiya Vidya Bhawan Tirupati

Dr.Nayakanti Maddaiah, Organizing Secretary of the Seminar was preceded the valedictory function with valedictory address about two day national seminar about user perceptions and expectations from Academic Libraries. He focused in his speech about user needs, their perceptions and expectations in degree colleges along with infrastructure requirement and government supports to implement the ICT facilities to the libraries in Government Degree Colleges in A.P.

Dr. O. Sivasankar Prasad, Rapporteur General of the seminar was presented a details seminar report from the inaugural session of the day one to up to sixth technical session of the day two. He concluded that the seminar aim and purpose will be fruitful, if the deliberations, suggestions are implemented by the respective delegates in their organisations.

Dr. C. Mallikarjuna, Seminar Director, has been talked about the two days seminar sessions was gone and its importance to academic environment. He also presented the seminar resolutions after the detailed discussions of the panel of experts regarding measures should take in Government Degree College Libraries to satisfy the needs of users and their expectations.

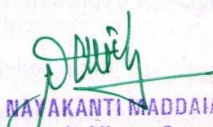

Feedback taken from the participants, the delegates were expressed their satisfaction regarding accommodation, and all other facilities, they also expressed seminar is more utilized towards to learning ICT facilities and library development with papers presentations and discussion with Invites and professionals.

Dr.K.Surendra Babu, Guest of Honour has addressed and suggested about usage and usability of libraries by students in Government Degree Colleges in Andhra Pradesh. Also he focused about how to improve the reading habits among the students in digital information society to face challenges ahead in future. In Under Graduate Institutions Libraries face lacuna in digital computing technologies in umpteen cases. In the current celerity scenario Libraries and Librarians have to adapt and adept Digital based technologies and multimedia to satiate the needs of end users.

Dr.V.Pulla Reddy, Chief Guest of the Validectory session has addressed about two days national seminar. According to his address Libraries play a decisive role in learning and success of any educational institution as a whole. Despite financial crunches, lack of staff, lack of infrastructure still withstanding the oddity dissipating the information to the information seekers. As a matter of fact, the Under Graduate and Post Graduate Institutions are dissipating quality education and research in the present Digital and Multimedia world. Well defined infrastructure facilities, committed, accountable and erudite teaching staff and digitally well equipped Library forms the crux of educational institutions. It is an established fact that students learns through teacher, peer wards and beyond doubt, it is the Library where the students ultimately metamorphose themselves into complete scholars. He also expressed about the phenomenal mutation brought by the Google and Internet in the contemporary age has to be accepted and adapted to its tune as a measure to fill the lacuna. Hence, it is sine-qua-non for Librarians and Library staff to acquire, enhances, refine and redefine their skills in the field of Digital Technology towards to meet user expectations and perceptions in Academic Libraries.

The valedictory session was concluded with vote of thanks by Dr.Nayakanti Maddaiah, Organizing Secretary of the seminar, followed by National Anthem.
